NEWINGTON COLLEGE YEAR 10 PRODUCTION

Accidental Death of an Anarchist

by Dario Fo

Did he jump? Or was he pushed? Delving into the depths of corruption and poking fun at bureaucracy gone mad, Accidental Death of an Anarchist takes you for a frantic, fantastical, farcical ride into the controversy surrounding the Italian case of an anarchist who ‘fell’ from the window of a police building following interrogation in 1969.

With our very own modern spin, this hilarious farce is not to be missed!

Thursday 17 October, Friday 18 October and Saturday 19 October at 7.00pm • Old Chapel

Tickets: Adults $15 / Students $10 / Drama Students $5

WARNING: this play contains moments of strong language and is suitable only for students in Year 9 and above.