

Does your child have a disability or special educational needs?

What was it like choosing a school for them?

A Macquarie University PhD researcher is seeking the perspectives of parents from New South Wales who have or are in the process of looking for a school for their child with special needs.

This research has received ethical clearance from the Macquarie University Human Research Ethics Review Committee.

Participants who complete the online survey will go in the draw for one of six $50 Gift Cards and can also elect to participate in an in-depth interview.

The survey should take 20-30 minutes to complete and your responses will help inform the development of support services for parents of children with a disability in New South Wales.

Any information or personal details that you provide will be kept confidential and you will not be identified personally in any way.

If you would like to participate in the research, please use the URL below to register your consent and access the online survey.
