Match Reports for Saturday 1 June

Year 11A Rugby Match Report v Tudor House

After an early morning start and a long car journey down to Bowral, we were greeted with glorious sunshine and the smell of bacon rolls on the Tudor House BBQ. After a focused warm up and a quick stud check from the home referee, Newington began the stronger team scoring a quick succession of tries from well worked passages of play. Curtis Palmer, Abraham Hassan and Simon Latham led the charge in the forwards showing their physicality and cleaning out well, allowing Max Fathulla to spread the ball wide and our speedy back line a chance to run. Tudor House fought back well and at half time they had closed the gap to one try. We displayed an impressive team effort to hold back the home team comeback and finished the stronger side with two more tries. A fantastic effort from all involved and the boys demonstrated their team spirit in the face of a challenge.

Year 11B Rugby Match Report v Tudor House

On Saturday the 11B's travelled to Tudor House to compete in our best game this season. The boys had worked very hard to improve at training over the past few weeks. Their defence was sharper and the back line defended with more organisation. A special mention in defence goes to Alex Lawson, who made several try scoring tackles. This week Alex also broke over for our first try, which then opened the floodgates! Two tries followed by Brian Zhang, including one barnstorming length of the field effort, plus one off the quick step of Samuel Ayoub. Justin Martin converted one penalty goal to tie the game in the second half. The game went down to the wire in an intense and fair battle, Tudor House scored in the final 5 minutes and desperately defended their line to hold on to the win. Despite losing, Mr MacRae and I were very proud of the boys and their fantastic team work. We are looking forward to another great performance after the long weekend.

Year 12A Football Match Report v Redlands

The 12A football team played beautifully Saturday morning against a well organised and strong Redlands 12A side. The team started well, with good shape and width, being compact in defence and expansive in attack. The central players, Alex Solomou, Jackson Sumich, Miles Parhash and Sami El-Zein played especially well, controlling the midfield and the game. The defence were terrific with Tim Pritchard and Miles Burke, playing out of the back with confidence and distributing well to the wings, played very ably by Ben Leung on the right and Ethan Kelly on the left. The combinations of wing-backs and wing-forwards are now working in harmony, with Ben Leung and Neil Khatri playing together very well, as did Ethan Kelly and Sam Bencsik on the other side, keeping width in attack, supporting each other and overlapping on occasion. Phil Gorgovski played a very solid game at centre forward, moving well with the ball and always being a danger in front of goal. Michael Gatis and Mark Elwaw came on later and showed their versatility by being able to play several positions very well.
