3-6 Father & Son Camp

Saturday 26 October 2013

COCKATOO ISLAND, SYDNEY HARBOUR

We have found a great new venue! You will be camping ... IN TENTS!

Why the change? Cost, access to venue and the most important reason ... YOUR TIME!

Cockatoo Island is the largest island in Sydney Harbour. It's located at the junction of the Parramatta and Lane Cove Rivers about 10 minutes by ferry from Circular Quay. It's a place to play and a place to learn and the boys will get to explore the wonders of our past. From a real convict prison to the amazing shipbuilding machines, get ready for their imaginations to run overtime with all that there is to discover on the island.

Enjoy one night away camping with friends overlooking Sydney Harbour. What isn't there to love about that?

Below are the basic details about the night away. Further details will be provided to confirmed bookings closer to the date. If you have any queries regarding the camp please do not hesitate to email Toby Guy (Year 5 parent) on toby.guy@austagencies.com.au

This camp is organised by parents for parents and we would love your help. If you can assist in any way please email Toby Guy on toby.guy@austagencies.com.au
