

A.L Tait author talk at Newington College

Newington College

On Tuesday, November 17th, A.L. Tait will be visiting the Preparatory school to speak to the Year 5 students. A.L. Tait grew up dreaming of world domination. Unfortunately, at the time there were only two sisters and a long-suffering brother to practise on ... and parents who didn't look kindly upon sword fights, plank-walking or thumbscrews. But dreams don't die and The Mapmaker Chronicles, the author's first series of books for children, is the result. A.L. lives in country New South Wales with a family, a garden and four goldfish. A.L. Tait writes fiction and non-fiction for adults under another name.

All books ordered will be personally signed and dedicated by Ms Tait, to ensure you do not miss out, please return the below form to school by Friday, 13th November to ensure you receive your order. Very limited stock will be available for purchase on the day.
